ESTABLISHED 1867.
500,000 PEOPLE
Throughout the United States & Canadas,
HAVE USED
DR. J. MILLER'S SOOTHING & HEALING
BALSAM.
And cheerfully recommend it to the public as being the Best FAMILY MEDICINE in the world for all internal and external complaints for which it is recommended. It is fast gaining popular favor, and has already reached extensive sales. All we ask, in order to convince the most skeptical of the powerful efficacy of this GREAT REMEDY, is the trial of one bottle, costing only 50 cents, and you will never be without it or hesitate to recommend it to your friends. Sold by druggists everywhere. Every bottle used according to directions is warranted to cure, or money refunded.
The proprietors CHALLENGE THE WORLD to produce its superior as a remedy. Testimonials received daily in reference to the astonishing cures it has performed. It is used and recommended by prominent physicians throughout the country.
It has proved infallible for Burns, Scalds, Frozen Limbs, Bruises, Sprains, Wounds of all kinds, Pains in the side, back or shoulders, Piles, Corns, Collblains, Chapped Hands, Stiff Neck, Agues in the face or breast, Ear Ache, Deafness, Loss of Motion of Limbs, Poisoning, Erysipelas, Inflammation of the Eyes, Inflamed Irritation of the Skin. For Rheumatism it is not a certain cure, yet hundreds have been relieved by it when other remedies had failed.
AS AN INTERNAL MEDICINE, when taken in season, it will cure Croup, Hoarseness, Sore Throat, Dry Cough, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Canker in the Mouth, Sore Lips, Inflammation of the Bowels, Dysentery, Kidney Complaints and Cholera Morbus.
THE "BALSAM" has also given great relief in many cases of Diphtheria.
No person need fear to use this medicine, as it is purely vegetable in its composition. It is soothing and healing in its influence, and may be given to any age or sex with perfect safety.

PRIVATE MEDICAL OFFICE,
No. 24 Endicott Street, Boston, Mass., is so arranged that patients never see or hear each other. Recollect the ONLY entrance to his Office is No. 24, having no connection with his residence, consequently no family interruption, so that on no account can any person hesitate applying at his office.
Openly asserts (and it cannot be contradicted except by quacks, who will do or say anything, even perjure themselves, to impose upon patients) that he is the only regular graduate physician advertising in Boston,
TWENTY YEARS
engaged in treatment of Special Diseases, a fact so well known to many Citizens, Publishers, Merchants, Bank Proprietors, &c., that he is much recommended, and patronized by Strangers and Travelers,
To avoid and escape Imposition of Foreign and Native Quacks, more numerous in Boston than other large cities.
gladly refers to Professors and respectable Physicians—many of whom consult him in critical cases, in view of his acknowledged skill and reputation, established through so long experience, practice and literature.
AFFLICTED AND UNFORTUNATE! are warned and aid to your sufferings is sought on account of the lying boasts, misrepresentations, false pretensions and pretensions of POTENT AND NATIVE QUACKS, who show little of the nature and character of Special Diseases, and less as to their cure. Some extract their Diplomas of Institutions or Colleges which never existed in any part of the world; others exhibit diplomas of late date, how obtained, unknown; not only advertising and advertising in names of three in a dozen in the Dispensaries, but to further their imposition assume names of other and most educated Physicians and gentlemen . . . rather be deceived by QUACK NOSTRUM MAKERS,
through false certificates and references, and assumed recommendations of their medicines at THE DEAD, who cannot expose or contradict them; or who, besides, to further their imposition, copy from Medical books and then have written the qualities and effects of different herbs and parts, and ascribe all the same to their Pills, Extracts, Specifics, &c., most of which, if not all, contain Mercury, because of the ancient belief of its curing everything," but now known to "kill more than it cures," and those not killed, constitution and stiffening for life.
DONDERANCE OF QUACK DOCTORS AND NOSTRUM MAKERS.
Through the ignorance of the Quack Doctor, knowing not correct remedy, he relies upon MERCURY, and poisons his patients in Pills, Drops, &c., so the Nostrum Maker, equally ignorant, adds to his stock of nostrums, Specifics, Antidotes, &c., both relying upon the credulity of the sufferer. A few in a hundred, it is unexpected in cures may be assigned, the rest; but, alas! notwithstanding the boasting; some of whom die, others grow worse, and are left to linger and suffer for months or years if not relieved or cured, if possible, by competent physicians.
BUT ALL QUACKS ARE NOT IGNORANT.
Nevertheless, may the foregoing facts are known to some Quack Doctors and Nostrum Makers, yet, regardless of life and health of others, there are those among them who will, yet, are themselves, contradicting the necessity to have patients or that it is considered in their Nostrums, so that the "medicine" may be obtained for profit, only curing, or "two dollar" or "fraction extra" may be obtained for the Nostrum. It is in this that money are received also, and necessarily good large amounts to, a Nostrum with quackery.
charges are very moderate. Communications recorded confidential, and all may rely on him with the strictest secrecy and confidence, whatever may be the disease, condition or situation of any one, married or single.

NEWPORT DAILY NEWS.

TUESDAY, Sept. 26, 1871.

The Newport Journal.

Summer residents who wish a Newport paper during the winter and do not care for a daily issue, can have the NEWPORT JOURNAL, published once a week, sent to their address by leaving orders at this office. The JOURNAL contains a full report of local news, will record all real estate transactions, and give especial attention to improvements in and about the city. Price two dollars a year.

Morning News.

News comes from Calcutta that a steamer has been wrecked off the coast of India and 138 lives lost.

Rev. William H. Milburn, a prominent Episcopal clergyman of the West, has withdrawn and joined the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal church, of which he was originally a member.

Seven murders were committed in New York on Sunday.

The yellow fever has broken out afresh in Charleston, South Carolina.

President Grant has gone to Chicago. He seems determined to mingle with the people and know their opinion. He goes next to Pittsburg.

Butler stock has had a decline in Massachusetts politics, through the influence of latest reports from the country towns. It is evident, now, that the majority in his republican convention will be against him. It is also against every other candidate who has been named.

Redwood Library.

We learn that there yet remains to be subscribed about four thousand dollars before this association will be able to avail itself of Mr. Gibbs' generous offer.

There certainly may yet be found in the community, or amongst those who have identified themselves with Newport by establishing here their summer residence, a sufficient number of liberal men who will come forward and send to the Library their subscriptions before 12 o'clock tomorrow, to enable the President to announce at the annual meeting that the list has been filled

In this connection we may remark that we have heard it intimated that certain friends of the Library are disposed to double their subscriptions if certain others, who names do not yet appear upon the list, will do their reasonable proportion.

Theodore Tilton and Victoria Woodhull.

The time was when Theodore Tilton stood high in literary and social circles. As editor of the Independent he was known to indulge in certain vagaries that indicated a somewhat disordered mind, and though often admired, he was never trusted with anything like implicit confidence. But latterly vagaries have become the rule and common sense the exception. His recent Biography of Mrs. Woodhull is the most absurd production of the press in this 19th century. It makes both Mrs. Woodhull and Mr. Tilton the laughing stock of the country.

If Mr. Tilton believes the half he writes concerning the great "female broker," it is no wonder that he wants her to be President Hear him in his description of the remarkable woman.

From her childhood till now (having reached her thirty-third year) her anticipation of the other world has been more vivid than her realization of this. She has entertained angels, and not unawares. The gracious guests have been her constant companions. They abide with her night and day. They dictate her life with daily revelation; and like St. Paul, she is "not disobedient to the "heavenly vision." She goes and comes at their behest. Her enterprises are not the coinage of her own brain, but of their divine invention. Her writings and speeches are the products, not only of their indwelling in her soul, but of their absolute control of her brain and tongue. Like a good Greek of olden time, she does nothing without consulting her oracles. Never, as she avers, have they deceived her, nor ever will she neglect their decrees. One-third of human life is passed in sleep; and in her case, a goodly fragment of this third is spent in trance. Seldom a day goes by but she enters into this fairy land, or rather into this spirit realm. In pleasant weather, she has a habit of sitting on the roof of her stately mansion on Murray Hill, and there communing hour by hour with the spirits

* * * * * * * *

It has been so from her childhood. So that her school studies were, literally, a daily miracle. She would glance at a page, and know it by heart. The tough little mysteries which bother the bewildered brains of country school dullards were always to her as vivid as the sunshine. And when sent on long and weary errands, she believes that she has been lifted over the ground by her angelic helpers—just she "should dash her feet against a stone." When she had too heavy a basket to carry, an unseen hand would sometimes carry it for her.

It would scarcely be believed that such claims as these should be put forward as reasons for the election of this woman to the Presidency of the United States. They are, in fact, the very best that Mr. Tilton urges. He assures us that all Mrs. Woodhull's political documents are dictated in every respect by the angel spirits, and they must therefore be correct.

As the personal appearance of a candidate is worth something we give one more extract in this connection, and leave those to vote for her who will.

"I must say something of her personal appearance although it denies portrayal, whether by photograph or pen. Neither tall nor short, stout nor slim, she is of medium stature, lithe and elastic, free and graceful. Her side face, looked at over her left shoulder, is of perfect aquiline outline, as classic as ever went into a Roman marble, and resembles the masque of Shakespeare taken after death; the same view, looking from the right, is a little broken and irregular; and the front face is broad, with prominent cheek bones, and with some unhappy nasal lines Her countenance is never twice alike, so variable is its expression and so dependent on her moods. Her soul comes into it and goes out of it, giving her at one time the look of a superior and almost saintly intelligence, and at another leaving her dull, commonplace, and unprepossessing."

In France, says a correspondent, a woman has no remedy when a man promises to marry her and doesn't. At first sight this may seem a little cruel; but practically it has the effect of doing away with what are called engagements, and, there being no engagement, there is no breach. A man and woman meaning to be married, marry at once and there is an end to diplomacy.

Personal.

Hon. George W. Benedict, for many years one of the editors and proprietors of the Vermont Daily Free Press, died at his residence in Burlington, Vt., on Saturday last, aged 76.

They have got a cute fellow as an apothecary down in Bridgeport, Connecticut. Demands for "Paddy in a Garret", and "Tucker from Ireland" elicited paregoric and tincture of Iron from him.

Abraham Lee, a respectable citizen of Titusville, Pa., was refused admittance to a breakfast given there to President Grant because Lee was a colored man.

Gen. Robert Anderson, the hero of Fort Sumpter, is now in Switzerland, with his wife and four children, living on half pay, an invalid, tottering to his grave, and so poor to keep a servant.

A man down in Maine has attended at fourteen hundred religious meetings within the past few years, and spoken at most of them. What is singular, his religious experience, as related by himself, was precisely the same last week as it was four years ago

Greeley has been teaching the Indians some things he knows about farming, and, among other advice, told them that it was folly to yoke their women into their ploughs so long as they could use steam for that purpose. This is no joke, but fact.

Chief-Justice Chase left Syracuse Saturday afternoon for Peterboro, Madison county, where he is to be the guest of Gerrit Smith for a few days. His health has improved during the past few weeks, and he is comparatively well again.

J. C. Bancroft Davis, Assistant Secretary of State, who has been appointed on the part of the United States to draw up the claims of American merchants under the Washington treaty, leaves Washington in two weeks to make preparations for the meeting of the Geneva Board of Arbitration.

Gen. Sheridan and party arrived at the North Platte River Saturday morning, and were conducted to Fort McPherson by General Emery, the officer commanding. Gen. Sheridan reviewed the troops, consisting of four companies of the fifth cavalry. The party starts across the country today guided by the renowned Buffalo Bull, and expect to reach Fort Wayne in ten days.

Remarkable Refutation of Trapper Testimony on the Scup Question.

Messrs. Editors:

As I doubt not your wish to elicit all attainable information in regard to the Scup controversy, I suggest that you transfer to your columns, the following article from the Providence Advertiser of the 23d instant: T.

Many of the citizens of Providence will remember the professedly great display of wisdom on the scup question made in certain communications to the Journal, in the month of May last, by Mr. Benjamin Tallman of Portsmouth in this state—one of the leading men in the business of trap fishing in Rhode Island waters, and one who, as he testified under oath, took upon one occasion $18,000 worth in nine days, and $3200 worth "one morning before breakfast"—Mr. Tallman declared in the Journal that he "knew the fishing business better than a book," and offered to communicate any amount of information on the subject, and seemed very desirous by means of a series of communications—as powerful and exhaustive, doubtless, in arguments and facts as they would evidently have been lucid and elegant in style—to instruct the people of our city and state, to their hearts' content, on the great subject of scup and the habits of fish generally.

Now, among the large number of experts and other intelligent men whose sworn depositions were taken by the Joint Special Committee appointed by the General Assembly, at its January session in 1870, "to examine into the fisheries of Narragansett Bay," this Mr. Benjamin Tallman was one of the very few from whom depositions were obtained among those engaged in the trapping business; and in answer to the questions, whether the home market would not be longer and better supplied with scup, if the existing modes of trapping and heart seining were not used, and to what he attributed the scarcity of scup, [see Interrogatories 50, 54 and 57 in the Report] he testifies as follows:

"I don't believe it would make the market any better, or the fish any plentier if these modes were not used, for the reason that the fish which we catch in the traps would not have stopped in the bay. * * * The scarcity of scup I attribute to the impurity of the water. * * * Of recent years scup won't live above Field's Point."

Now, the people all know what has happened during the past summer. They know that during the unusually warm weather which prevailed all along the coast in the month of March and in the first part of April the scup came into the bay in great numbers before the traps had been set; that our waters subsequently swarmed with young scup; that they were not only taken at Pawtuxet, Barrington and all the old fishing grounds, in abundance, as in former years, but that they were repeatedly caught above Field's Point! There is no mistake about this. The facts were published in the daily papers at the time. The Journal stated (July 26) that scup were "readily taken quite close to the shore," and in a communication published a few days subsequently the fact is stated that they were caught, with hook and line, above Point Street Bridge. But we happen to have personal knowledge of these facts.

What, then, we would ask, is the testimony of Mr. Tallman of Portsmouth, in regard to the impurity of our waters, and the impossibility that scup can live in them, worth? Is it worth a piece of five cent fractional currency so ragged and dirty that you can't make out what it really is? And what is the value of the statements generally of the trappers and heart-seiners on this fish question.

We hear that great efforts will be made by the trapping and heart-seining interest to prevent any action of the General Assembly, at its next January session, detrimental to their destructive business—a business which has for years deprived the people of Rhode Island of a large and important portion of their accustomed summer food. Lieut. Gov. Stevens, however, (who is known as being connected with the very lucrative heart-seining business) and a number of the politicians, received a pretty sharp rebuke and a very significant at the last spring election, and we rather guess they will be cautious about slighting the manifest will of the people in regard to this matter of monopolizing the fisheries in Rhode Island waters.

Growth at Lonsdale R. I.

The Lonsdale Company at Lonsdale, in the valley of the Blackstone, are enlarging their means of operation, so as to rank among the leading establishments of the country. They are enlarging their mill by the erection of a wing five stories high, which will accommodate 25,000 spindles, and make their whole number 57,000. The Company is also erecting fifteen brick tenement houses, eight of which contains four tenements, and seven of them two. They have also erected four brick houses in the old village of Lonsdale, a new repair shop 40x110; a cloth room 60x102, of brick, three stories high, and a large brick dyehouse. The whole mill will contain 1,028 looms. In addition to these, the town has erected a public hall and library building, of which the hall will seat 1,000 persons.

About Home.

Rev. Phebe A. Hanaford will preach at the Union church, Portsmouth, Sunday next, afternoon and evening.

By reference to the advertising columns it will be seen that the Old Colony and Newport Railroad Company have, as usual, made ample arrangements for the accommodation of all who wish to attend the annual exhibition of the Bristol County Agricultural Society at Taunton this week.

Rev. Dr. White, of Trinity Church, has purchased a lot on Ayrault street, above Kay, and it is said, will proceed to build at once. With Messrs. Malcom, Murphy and White, in the same neighborhood, this may be described as the clergymen's quarter. It is, withal, one of the most pleasant localities in Newport.

Our acknowledgments are due our neighbor, F. A. Pratt Esq., of the Mercury, for valuable aid in printing the DAILY NEWS for nearly a week past. It having been found necessary to make repairs on our own press the paper has been printed at that office. We shall be happy, if occasion allow, to reciprocate the favor.

Parties who have been over to the east side of the island and visited Sturtevant Avenue, say it is the most beautiful portion of the island. Mr. Sturtevant has laid out this avenue, sixty feet wide, and three miles long, it being, during the entire distance, about 600 feet from the water.

There is a church in town where a huge company of men rush out as soon as the services are concluded and range themselves on the curbstone, facing the door, that they may watch the congregation while leaving the house. More than thirty stood thus in a row recently and we could not percieve that one of them flinched under the trying ordeal. If any person thinks we refer to their church, the question can be easily determined by watching operations on the next pleasant Sunday.

LARGE FLAG.—On the flag staff of the No. 3 Engine Co., may be seen the largest flag in the United States. It is forty feet by sixty, and was made to order for Elias Howe, jr., in honor of the regiment he raised during the war, in Bridgeport, Conn. The flag-staff upon which it was first raised cost $2500.

SHERIFF'S SALE.—The right, title and interest of Edward W. Read in and to an estate on Bath Road and Stevens' Avenue, was sold yesterday at public auction, for the sum of one dollar to Messrs. Finch, Engs & Co., there being no other bidders.

An incident of this sale fully exemplifies the folly and ignorance of a certain class of people in reference to the relation of officers of the law to their duties. Upon appearing upon the premises for the purpose of selling, Deputy Sheriff Lake was violently assaulted by the wife of Read, with a formidable oak club, and she being a stout woman and perfectly frantic, might have inflicted serious injury, had not that officer promptly seized and disarmed her, before she could strike him. Her husband then tardily appeared upon the scene and forced her into the house, when the sale proceeded to a happy issue. None but the ignorant or evil disposed, would ever for a moment think of laying any blame, or inflicting personal injury upon an officer for doing what is simply his duty.

THE MUSTER.—Every one, especially every fireman, is on the qui vive to day, and a good time is anticipated before this gathering of our protectors from the devouring element, from other cities have taken their departure. Preparations have been on foot for several days to give our visiting friends a cordial reception. Arrangements were some time since perfected, whereby all could be well cared for, and the wants of the inner man bountifully supplied. The work of decorating the engine houses, and other public buildings was commenced at a late hour last evening, and, at this time of writing, it is being rapidly pushed towards completion. The decorations are of a very neat and appropriate character but as they are not yet completed we shall refrain from particularizing until tomorrow. The chief feature of decoration with most of the fire companies seems to be two arches, in front of the engine house, crossing the street, under which the procession will march. Of these two arches one is higher than the other so that at a distance the words "Welcome Firemen" can be read on most of them. They are trimmed with evergreen and ornamented with flags of every conceivable size and variety. The State House and the parade are also very highly ornamented with flags and bunting, about which we shall have more to say tomorrow.

ARRIVALS AND CEREMONY THIS MORNING.

The following visiting companies arrived by the 11 o'clock train:

"Niagara" No. 3, Cambridge Mass., 50 men and Shawmut Band, of Boston.

"Good Will" No. 1, Hyde Park Mass., 25 men with drum corps.

"Fire King" No. 5, Randolph, Mass., 60 men with drum corps.

These companies, in the above order, were received at the depot, by an escort of the following Newport companies:

"Aquidneck" No. 3, with 45 men and Redwood Band.

"Protection" No. 5, with 88 men and Newport Band.

"Hercules" No. 7, with 30 men and Fort Adams Band.

The escort and visiting companies, in the order named, marched up to the Parade, down Thames street to Sayer's wharf where they halted to receive the "Montgomeries," of Pawtucket, who arrived by the steamer Bay Queen. The entire procession then proceeded down Thames street as far as the Post Office, and thence the visiting companies were escorted to dinner at their several hotels, namely—the Atlantic, United States and City Hotel.

Two companies, the "Columbia," of Bridgewater and the "Brookline," of Brookline, Mass., which were expected this morning, did not arrive.

Several other companies are expected this afternoon, which will add much to the display and interest of the celebration.

The companies of Newport deserve much credit for the fine style in which they received their guests.

This evening the grand torch light procession will take place, according to the programme published in last Friday's issue.

The line of march will be as follows:—Down Bellevue avenue to Perry street, through Perry, Spring and Howard to Thames, up Thames to Pelham, up Pelham to Spring, through Spring to Mill, down Mill to Thames, up Thames to Bridge, down Bridge and Washington to Long Wharf, up Long Wharf, Parade and Spring street, to head of Broad, countermarch to Bull, through Bull, Mt. Vernon and Touro to the Park. The procession is to be illuminated with Chinese lanterns, and the citizens along the line will, without doubt, add to the occasion with fireworks and illuminations.

Tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock the procession will form in the same place and the same order, and the route will be as follows: Down Bellevue avenue to Perry street, through Perry and Dearborn to Thames, through Thames to Parade, up the Parade to Broad street, up Broad to reservoir.

The bells of the city churches will ring this evening from seven to nine o'clock; and also tomorrow during the movements of the procession.

Supreme Court.

The Court failed to meet yesterday, as per adjournment, Judge Durfee, who was to preside having been detained by an accident to the Wickford boat.

The Court came in this morning, at nine o'clock, when the case of Joseph M. Lyon, against Thos. S. Hovland was opened to the jury, soon after which the defendant's attorney submitted judgment, having reference to a second trial. Immediately after this, the jurors were dismissed for the term, and the Court will now be engaged for the rest of the time, upon questions of law and divorce suits, all unheard jury trials going over to next term.

The petitions of Anne J. Card against Charles J. Card, for a divorce was heard and granted.

At twelve o'clock, noon, Chief Justice Brayton and Mr. Justice Potter arrived, and a full bench was thus present.

A full array of Counsel in the case of Philip B. Chase, administrator, against Lloyd S. Sutton, and another, was present, and a petition to set aside the verdict of the Jury in the above named case was being argued to the Court, as we go to press.

"Woman,"—Criticism.

Mr. Editor:

As you and I are great friends, my criticism must be very good natured, although you have given me an easy chance to be sharp were I so disposed.

In your paper of yesterday, under the above quoted caption,—"woman,"—you give us nine separate items. Now in beginning to read, under a heading which is the synonym of the "better half," the noblest part of humanity, we would naturally expect to find some noble, pure or generous sentiment. But, on the contrary, with one solitary exception, (credited to a "carpet-bag judge,") every item in the list, is a sneer or burlesque upon woman! Now, I will be just, (and you know I am always good natured, even when I am cross,) for I anticipate your apology, as you hasten behind your editorial defences to say smilingly, "you know my dear sir, and my offended ladies, that these are not my own sentiments, (bowing graciously,) but that they were clipped from other papers." Very true, Mr. Editor, we admit the editorial prerogatives, but who used the editorial scissors? Do not those editorial clippers cut as they are editorially directed? Could they not have clipped other, (and better) items, from those "other papers!"

But I will stop, right here; for I am afraid I shall get cross—which I never am, except—

Johnnie's Name is There.

JESSIE LINWOOD.

After the dedication of the soldier's monument, a gentleman stopped to examine it more closely than he had been able to do in a crowd, and observing a lady engaged in the same manner, he remarked to her that there were a great many names on the tablets. She burst into tears, and said "Yes Johnnie's name is there." She told him Johnnie's story which gave rise to the following verses:

Quiet and peaceful the morning dawns,
Hidden the sun's bright ray,
And with many a sad and tearful face,
The streets are thronged today.
And tattered banners are flung to the breeze,
That in battle have borne their part,
And muffle throbs in dirges sweet,
That sadden every heart.

High in the air, stands the Goddess fair,
And recalls with drooping head,
With immortelles and laurel wreath
The brave and fallen dead.
And after the crowd have passed away,
A mother with pious care
Searches the tablets and weeps afresh,
For Johnnie's name is there.

The only son of a happy home,
He heard his country call,
And the mother with sad and fearful heart,
Tearfully gave her all.
The eyes of sunny blue are closed,
There is one more "vacant chair,"
The tablet lifts its head on high,
And Johnnie's name is there.

And the lonely mother's heart bows down,
Beneath the chastening rod,
And the tears flow fast from her aching eyes,
As she prays to Johnnie's God.
And in all her sorrow the mother looks
With pride at the tablet fair,
That tells a Nation's gratitude,
For Johnnie's name is there.

Then she thinks of her hero safe at last
In a fair and peaceful home,
And her tears are dried, and her griefs assuaged,
For the "Comforter has come"
And she prays to God that all mourning hearts,
Bowed down with grief and care,
May be led to rejoice that their darling ones
Are worthy a record there.

The Tolland county agricultural society offers a premium of $5 for the "ugliest looking team on the fair grounds," evidently intended to get up a rivalry in the "antique and horrible" line. But the Woonsocket Patriot sees no joke in the affair and thus vents its indignation: "This is a direct insult to some poor farmer who ventures out to witness the 'hoss trots' of that association. Of late years the agricultural societies of New England have degenerated into mere jockey clubs; and now one of those associations insults the very class which originated agricultural societies, and who have always given to them their chief and only respectability. The poor farmer on a mortgaged farm, paralyzed with debt, and may be by continual sickness in his household, cannot afford the fine horse and costly equipage owned by more thrifty, lucky or fortunate classes. Yet a Connecticut agricultural society (horse trot show) boldly offers a premium on the poverty of its humble tillers of the soil! A more reprehensible premium has never been offered by a society which claims to be connected with agriculture."

Over-doctored.

Without any disrespect to the members of the medical profession, a profession honored by all thinking men, it is only just to say that they are too thick on the ground. The consequence is that the community is doctored over much. What nature needs only the gentle stimulant and alterative, which has become famous throughout the country as a reliable medicine, under the name of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, she is not infrequently faced with a dozen prescriptions, all experimental, from the Pharmacopœia. This is an evil, and proves that the practice of medicine is far from being at all times a healing art. At this period of the year, when the fall of the leaf indicates that decay has seized upon the vegetable kingdom, many kindred illnesses are prevalent. Chief among these may be mentioned intermittent fever and bilious remittent. The exhalations rising from decomposing vegetation, and the heavy dews and fogs, are very apt to generate these complaints. The wisest policy is to protect the system by a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters at the commencement of the fall. Much suffering may thereby be avoided. But if the disease has already begun, be particular to use only the genuine article, and not be imposed upon by the spurious stuff now offered. Bear in mind that every bottle of genuine Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is authenticated by a specially engraved label, and a fac simile of the signature of the firm. Put up in bottles only and prepared for sale by druggists and dealers generally. sept1

SPECIAL NOTICES.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Feb. 11, 1870.

I have used "Dr. Bullock's Nephreticum" for several months past for a disease of the Kidneys and Bladder of ten years standing. During all that long and gloomy period I addicted at times attacks of the most excruciating pains and tried all kinds of medicines and many eminent physicians, with little relief at times, yet with no permanent, lasting benefit. At last I was induced to try "Nephreticum," and after continuing its use for a considerable period of time, I began to be benefited, and now I feel satisfied that I have obtained permanent, and, I trust, lasting relief. I still take "Nephreticum" and give to my friends. For a year past I have had no severe attacks of disease. I feel it has given me a new lease of life, and I most cheerfully and I confidently recommend "Nephreticum" as a reliable, safe and sure remedy for diseases of the Bladder and Kidneys.

The Cause and Cure of Consumption.

The primary cause of consumption is enlargement of the digestive organs. This disarrangement produces coldness of extremities and perspiration. By assimilation there are certain processes by which the nourishment of the food is converted into blood, and thence into the various parts of the body. Persons with a healthy digestive system, having the highest precision, are philosophically correct or if they take cold, will be only liable to have Consumption of the lungs as some of their ancestors and I tell you it will be impossible to cure any case of Consumption without first restoring a good digestion and healthy assimilation. The very best thing to do first is to cleanse the stomach and bowels from all diseased matter and slime which is clinging thereto, so that they cannot perform their functions, and then follow up and restore the liver to a healthy action. For this purpose, the safest and best remedy is Schenck's Mandrake Pills. These pills cleanse the stomach and bowels of all the coldness and slime that is causing trouble, and convey it in the whole system. They will clear out the liver of all diseased bile that has accumulated there, and cause it to pass in new and healthy action, by which natural and healthy bile is secreted.

The stomach, bowels and liver are thus cleansed by the use of Schenck's Mandrake Pills, and there remains in the stomach an excess of acid, the organ of taste and the appetite is poor. In the bowels, the food is like wind, and impeding strength and support. It is a well established fact that Schenck's Seaweed Tonic comes to the aid of the stomach, and by its alterative and tonic properties, it quickly and in the mildest manner possible, changes the stomach sweet and healthy, it will give pronounced tone to the taste, stomach, and in a very few days healthy appetite, and prepare the system for the first process of digestion, and so the food will assimilate healthy, healthy blood. After this preliminary treatment, what remains to cure is a diseased condition of the lungs. In the free and perfect action of healthy digestion, the Pulmonic Syrup invigorates the system, for the time being, and is taken up and absorbed into the circulation, and carried forward to the diseased lungs, where it ripens all in most matters, whether in the form of abscesses or tubercles, and throws the Nature to expectorate the matter in the form of Pleurisy or Pleuritic, which other Expectorants. Then, by the great alterative and healing properties of Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup and of Seaweed and Cod Liver Oil, the patient is cured.

There are certain cases of Lung Consumption that are incurable, yet even in these cases good digestion, so that the body will grow in flesh and strength. If a person has coughed longer, a cavity or hollow there, then it is certain that the matter contained in the cavity is broken out. What is necessary to be done in a case of this kind, a good digestion is good health, the body will grow in flesh and strength, but the cavities will heal, the matter will be thrown off in large quantities, and the patient will be cured.

The great point to be kept in view during Consumption is to keep up a good digestion, good digestion, so that the body will grow in flesh and strength. If a person has coughed longer, a cavity or hollow there, then it is certain that the matter contained in the cavity is broken out. What is necessary to be done in a case of this kind, a good digestion is good health, the body will grow in flesh and strength, but the cavities will heal, the matter will be thrown off in large quantities, and the patient will be cured.

The great point to be kept in view during Consumption is to keep up a good digestion, good digestion, so that the body will grow in flesh and strength.

This is the treatment only point to the Consumption, and in a person is very sick, it the lungs are not entirely gone, it is never in a healthy condition, but in the other to heal up, there is hope.

I have seen many persons cured with only one bottle of Mandrake Pills, and life to a good age.—This is what Schenck's medicines will do to cure Consumption. They will clean out the stomach, sweeten and invigorate digestion, and have Nature the assistance she needs to clear the system of all the diseases in the lungs, whatever the name may be.

It is important that when using Schenck's medicines, the patient should be careful not to take cold; keep in the house and avoid the night air, and take care to keep warm and good and warm clothing.

I wish it clearly understood that when I recommend a patient to be careful in regard to taking cold, what I mean is, that it is not for a special reason. A man who has been partially recovered from the effects of a bad cold is liable to a relapse. There is no doubt but certainly which, and so I advise the patient to be careful in regard to exposure. As long as the lungs are not perfectly healed, just so long is there a material danger of a bad return of the disease. Hence it is that I have so earnestly cautioned patients to be careful in regard to exposure. Confirmed consumption has been a case of years, which cannot be cured in a few days or weeks. The patient must be patient, persevere with my medicines, and be careful in regard to exposure, and I have no doubt but they will be cured.

The patient should be kept on a wholesome and nutritious diet, and the medicines continued until the body has restored to it the natural quantity of flesh and strength.

I was myself cured by this treatment of the worst kind of Consumption, and have lived to get fat and hearty these many years, with no trouble, entirely gone. I have cured thousands since, and very many have been cured by this treatment whom I have never seen.

About the first of October I expect to take possession of my new Drug Store, the corner of Sixth and Arch streets, where I shall be pleased to see and see all who may want it.

Full directions accompany all my medicines, so that persons in any part of the country can be readily cured by a strict observance of the same.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE.

STATE OF RHODE ISLAND AND PROVIDENCE PLANTATIONS.

SECRETARY OF STATE'S OFFICE,
PROVIDENCE, September 11, 1871.

WHEREAS, the General Assembly at its late May Session passed an act to approve and publish, and submit to the electors certain proposed amendment to the Constitution of this State, which are described as follows:

ARTICLE V.

Every male citizen of the United States, of the age of twenty-one years, who has had the residence and home in this State one year, and in the town or city in which he may offer to vote six months, next preceding the time of voting, who shall give evidence of his intention to read the Constitution, and whose name shall be entered in the town where he resides, on or before the last day of December, in the year next preceding, not less at least seven days before he shall offer to vote, (except persons entitled to vote in town or ward meetings) Provided, that no person shall at any time be allowed to vote in any proposed act to impose a tax, or for the expenditure of money in any town or city, or upon the revenue of the City of Providence, unless he shall have paid a tax within a year next before upon taxable property, within the town or city where he shall offer to vote, valued at least at one hundred and thirty-three dollars.

ARTICLE VI.

No religious test shall hereafter be required, nor shall the payment of such tax be required as a qualification of an elector.

ARTICLE VII.

No sectarian or denominational school or institution shall receive any aid or support from the revenues of the State, nor shall any tax be imposed upon the property of any religious institution property of the State in aid of any such school or institution.

The act referred to also requires that said proposed amendment shall be submitted to the electors, for their approval or rejection, at special meetings of the electors to be held on the second Monday in October, 1871.

The ballots, with more specific instructions, will be furnished to the town and city clerks.

NEWPORT DAILY NEWS

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE.

STATE OF RHODE ISLAND AND PROVIDENCE PLANTATIONS.

SECRETARY OF STATE'S OFFICE,
PROVIDENCE, September 11, 1871.

WHEREAS, the General Assembly at its late May Session passed an act to approve and publish, and submit to the electors certain propositions of amendment to the Constitution of this State, which are designated as follows:

ARTICLE V.

Every male citizen of the United States, of the age of twenty-one years, who has had his residence and home in this state two years, and in the town or city in which he may offer to vote six months, next preceding to time of voting, who shall give evidence of his ability to read this Constitution, and whose name shall be registered in the town where he resides, on or before the last day of December, in the year next preceding, and for at least seven days before he shall offer to vote, (except persons enumerated in Section 4 of said Article II of said Constitution,) shall have the right to vote on all questions in all legally organized town or ward meetings: Provided, That no person shall at any time be allowed to vote upon any proposition to impose a tax, or for the expenditure of money in any town or city, or upon the election of the City Council for the City of Providence, unless he shall have paid a tax within a year preceding upon his property, within the town or city where he shall offer to vote, valued at least at one hundred and thirty-four dollars.

ARTICLE VI.

No registry tax shall hereafter be assessed, nor shall the payment of such tax be required as a qualification of an elector.

ARTICLE VII.

No sectarian or denominational school or institution shall receive any aid or support from the revenues of the state, nor shall any tax be imposed upon the people or property of the State in aid of any such school or institution.

The act referred to also requires that said propositions of amendment shall be submitted to the electors, for their approval or rejection, at special meetings of the electors to be held on the second Monday in October, 1871.

The ballots, with more specific instructions, will be forwarded to the town and city clerks.

JOHN R. BARTLETT,

WE invite those in want of Furniture of any kind, to call and examine our stock, and think it would be for their advantage, for the following reasons:

1st. We purchase our lumber from the mills at the West, where it is taken direct from the forest; and import our Upholstery goods from the manufacturers in Europe, thereby saving the profit of the Importer and the Lumber Dealer.

2d. We manufacture on a large scale, and are enabled to get the best workmen because we can employ them the year round; and in manufacturing articles by the hundred we can do so much cheaper than those who manufacture only by the dozen.

3d. We have double the quantity and variety of goods, and nearly double the room to display them of any furniture house in Boston, thereby offering purchasers a better chance to suit their taste.

4th. Our rent is cheaper than that of any other furniture house in Boston, considering the amount of goods we sell, and as our sales are large we can afford to sell at a small profit, and are willing to do so.

ROMANISM AS IT IS.

THIS BOOK, AN ELEGANT OCTAVO VOLUME, CONTAINING 700 PAGES, AND 105 FIRST-CLASS ENGRAVINGS, IS AN EXHAUSTIVE AND STANDARD WORK, eminently adapted to the times. It fully exposes the Romish system from its origin to the present time, exposes its baseless pretensions, its frauds, its persecutions, its gross immoralities, its opposition to our public schools, and civil and religious liberty; it shows its insidious workings which strongly tend to bring this country under full Romish control. THE

THE NOVELTY CLOTHES WRINGER.

Nothing, except the Sewing Machine, has ever been invented which so much relieves the labor of the household as the Wringer. But its usefulness does not end here. The saving of clothing is of much greater importance. It is often remarked that articles of fine texture, last twice as long when wrung in a Wringer as when wrung by hand. The NOVELTY has Cog-wheels on both ends. The rolls are allowed to separate freely at either end.—These, besides other advantages which it contains, seem to be indispensable to a practical wringer.

New York Independent.

The Novelty Wringer.—Has become an indispensable institution in thousands of families.—And we believe its great and increasing popularity is fully merited—for the Novelty evidently possesses all the requisites of a first-class, practical machine. Indeed, after using one for many months in our own family, we are prepared to endorse the Novelty as unsurpassed (the humbleness says unequaled,) by any of the several wringers previously tried.—Moore's Rural New Yorker.

Manhood: How Lost, How Restored.

JUST PUBLISHED, a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the (without medicine) of SPERMATORRHŒA or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc.; also, Consumption, Epilepsy and Fits, induced by self-indulgence of sexual extravagance.

Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' success in practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, can cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.

Sent, under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, postpaid on receipt of six cents, or two post stamps.
